Sponsored by

Indian Council of Social Science Research (ICSSR), New Delhi

The Centre for Himalayan and Trans Himalayan Studies, University of Ladakh, and the Department of Political Science, University of Ladakh, organize a Two-Week Capacity Building Program (CBP) for Faculty from 23rd June to 05th July 2025.

The programme is designed to develop faculty research aptitude and conduct in-depth research in Social Sciences. The course is based on theoretical lectures, interactive sessions, and practical exercises in SPSS. While the emphasis will remain on understanding the elements of research processes, the participants will be encouraged to design a research proposal during the course and discuss it during the paper clinic.

The following are the broad objectives:

- Expose Faculty to the Latest Developments: Offer in-service faculty, especially Lecturers and Assistant Professors, exposure to the latest advancements in their fields, technological innovations, and enhancement of their general methodological and writing skills.
- Promote Interdisciplinary Research: Introduce scholars to research strategies across various social science disciplines, encouraging interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary research.
- Refine Research Skills: Develop researchers' abilities across all stages of the research process, from problem identification to reporting and publication of findings.

- Integrate Technology in Research: Introduce participants to the latest technological tools and techniques, enabling them to incorporate these advancements effectively into their research and teaching.
- To inform the participants of the criteria by which funding agencies judge research proposals.

Eligibility of the Participants:

Faculty members can apply using the prescribed application format. Selected candidates will be emailed to inform them.
