

OFFICE OF THE DEAN STUDENTS WELFARE
UNIVERSITY OF LADAKH
KARGIL/LEH
MAIL ID: dswuol22@gmail.com

"Bharatiya Bhasha Diwas" was celebrated on the occasion of Mahakavi Subramania Bharati, a multi-linguist and freedom fighter on 11th December 2022 at University of Ladakh, Leh Campus. Various events such as folk song, poem, gazal, proverbs recitations in different dialects of Ladakh like, Dardi, Balti, Purgi, Boti and Shina is conducted to promote the "Language Harmony" among the students.

Dr. Jigmat Dachen, Dean Students Welfare, University of Ladakh addressed the gathering by briefing about the importance of celebrating the "Bharatiya Bhasa Diwas".

Around 70 students and faculty member of the Leh Campus participated in the events. Students took centre stage, showcasing the rich cultural of Ladakh through the art of reciting poems and singing folk songs in the melodious tunes of Ladakhi. The resonating verses and tunes not only echoed the linguistic diversity of India but also celebrated the heritage and essence of Ladakhi culture, captivating the audience with its soulful renditions. The event served as a testament to the spirit of unity in diversity, epitomized the essence of Bharat's varied heritage and the collective aspirations of its people. It was a day of learning, celebration, and cultural exchange, a sense of pride in linguistic diversity and cultural richness among the attendees. The event concluded with the price distribution amongst students.

The winners of different events are as under:

1. Mr. Abbas Ali, MSc, Mathematics 3rd Semester for Ghazal,
2. Mr. Stanzin Namgyal, B.P.Ed 1st Semester for Bhoti Poem
3. Mr. Stanzin Dorjay, MCom 3rd Semester, Ladakh Folk song
4. Mr. Mubarik Hussain, MTTM 3rd Semester for Shina Proverbs
5. Ms Shaheen Msc Zoology 1st Semester for hindi poem
6. Mr. Ghulam Mohd MTTM 1st Semester for Balti Folk Song.

