With Poster "Journée de la Francophonie"

The event began with an introductory session in the classroom on the concepts of "Francophone," "Francophonie," and "francophonie," which paved the way for a thoughtful question-and-answer session and a discussion on various aspects of France and its cultural heritage.

Cake-Cutting Ceremony

The celebratory ambience was further enhanced by a delightful aperitif at the University Canteen and a ceremonial cake-cutting, accompanied by a performance of the iconic French song "Les Champs Elysees" by Joe Dassin, which added a musical dimension to the proceedings.

Dr. Subrat Sharma, the Dean of Science, honored the event with his presence and encouraged students to embrace language learning as a means of broadening their horizons. The celebration concluded with a group photo, capturing the spirit of unity and cultural appreciation.
